

Rick Rayl

Co-Owner and CEO of Transworld Business Advisors of Coachella Valley,
Serving the Inland Empire

Rick is Treasurer and President Elect of the California Association of Business Brokers and a member of the International Business Brokers Association. He supports business owners and agents by leveraging thirty years of executive-level experience in global supply chain management, marketing, sales, procurement, and operations to assist others in reaching their business goals. He has been instrumental in leading teams and involved in hundreds of negotiations across 5 continents.

Dedicated and accomplished Strategic Leader with 20+ years of experience, a solid track record of achieving exceptional levels of productivity, and a demonstrated background in improving efficient business operations. Equipped with an ability to manage international business operations within a variety of environments, leading staff members, and managing product line development logistics. Offer solid supervisory abilities with an ability to lead large-scale operational projects, handle financial operations, manage cross-functional teams, and implement innovative processes.

CEO - Transworld Business Advisors of Coachella Valley 2017 - present

Vice President - Bensussen Deutsch & Associates, Woodinville, WA 1996 - 2017

Regional Merchandiser - Nordstrom, San Francisco, CA 1986 - 1996